

THE ALVIN DIXON MEMORIAL BURSARY APPLICATION

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Alvin Dixon Memorial Bursary. This bursary was established in honour of Alvin's life and his dedication to the United Church and to education. This bursary will help support Indigenous students seeking to enter or continue post-secondary education or study at religious and spiritual centres. The Alvin Dixon Memorial Bursary is a yearly award that is available to Indigenous students enrolled in full-time post-secondary studies. Our priority is for students demonstrating both financial need and academic excellence. The bursary may be awarded for multiple years to support the studies of selected candidates.

The application and all supporting documents are due by September 15 each year. Applications that do not fit the following criteria will not be accepted. In addition, incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Eligibility criteria:

- ✓ You are Indigenous (First Nation–status/non-status, Inuit, or Métis).
- ✓ You are enrolled in an accredited Canadian and/or international post-secondary educational institution (university or college) and/or religious or spiritual centres in full-time studies.
- ✓ You are in financial need.
- ✓ You have demonstrated good academic performance with a minimum 2.50 grade point average.

Once you submit your application, a committee made up of six Indigenous volunteers from across the country will review your application using a blindfold process. A blindfold process removes all identification details from your application. A decision letter will be sent to you in late November or early December.

If you have any questions, please contact the Healing Programs Coordinator or Programs Assistant in Indigenous Ministries and Justice. Good luck!

Declaration of Indigenous Status

For the purposes of this voluntary self-identification, an Indigenous person is:

An Aboriginal person, as recognized in the Constitution Act, 1982; or a person who identifies with First Nations (Status/Non-Status), Métis, or Inuit cultural and/or ancestry background in Canada.

I hereby state that I am an Indigenous student and identify as such as per my institution’s Indigenous self-identification policy. This assertion means that I identify as a member of the First Peoples of Canada meaning, in general terms, First Nation, Métis, Inuit, Indigenous, Aboriginal (status or non-status), or specifically by my home community or my Nation.
